How did you hear about us?

WHO: Keystone MacCentral is a group of Macintosh users who gather each month to share information on how to get the most out of their Mac computers. This is a diverse group of Mac enthusiasts who range in age, background and experience.

WHAT: We exchange information; provide technical support during our Q & A sessions; have featured speakers; introduce new software and hardware; have auctions; raffles; learn a lot and laugh a lot.

WHEN: The 3rd Tuesday of each month, from 6:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

WHERE: Gannett West Building, 209 Senate Avenue, Camp Hill, where we have executive accommodations with internet access and a large screen for viewing our programs.

CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA MACINTOSH USER GROUP

Officially Recognized by Apple Computer, Inc.

Monthly meetings on the third Tuesday at the Farley Gannett Engineering Center 209 Senate Avenue Camp Hill, PA

“Well, to create a new standard, it takes something that’s not just a little bit different, it takes something that’s really new, and captures people’s imagination, and the Macintosh, of all the machines I’ve ever seen, is the only one that meets that standard.”
– Bill Gates, Dec. 1996

Something for Everyone: Each meeting provides for a wide range of interests, so whether you’re a novice, a student, a teacher or a working professional, KeyMac has much to offer. The 12 meetings a year cover a broad spectrum of topics from technology to guides for internet and online access, from computer arts to computer science.

Sample programs: Organizing Your Hard Drive; Digital Photography; Valuable Web sites; Online Shopping Tips; Mac OS - installations, features, upgrades; Genealogy Software; "Apple's iMpressive iStrategy" news report; Weave Your Own Web Page; Graphics Track; Clip Art 101.

Special Features: Guest speakers who demonstrate the latest hardware or software; Some very creative KeyMac members who generously share their real-world experience and advice; Our Annual Auction – a good place to recycle your unused hardware and software and to find great bargains; Club discounts on software and books; Raffles and door prizes. Hugs and Kisses, chocolate that is, have shown u for Valentine's Day.
