

<http://www.lib.berkeley.edu/TeachingLib/Guides/Internet/ToolsTables.html>

THREE BASIC "FAMILIES" OR TYPES OF SEARCH TOOLS The BEST Search Engines to use

TABLE of features

To find "Three Families or Types of Search Tools - Links to all search tools tables" follow the 5 steps below.

STEP 1 (enter) <http://www.lib.berkeley.edu/TeachingLib>

STEP 2 (select highlighted)

- * About the Teaching Library
- * Instruction & Tours
- * Services for Faculty
- * Library Information Guides
- * Teaching Library Projects
- * Course Pages

STEP 3 (select highlighted)

How to use internet resources

- * Citing Internet Resources
- * Finding information on the Internet: A Tutorial
- * Frequently asked questions about the Internet & Library Research
- * Frequently asked questions about the Internet, the WWW, Netscape

STEP 4 (select highlighted)

- * What is the Internet, the World Wide Web, and Netscape?
- * Web Browsers Guides
- * Things To Know before you begin searching....
- * Recommended Search Strategy:
  - * Three Families or Types of Search Tools - Links to all search tools tables

STEP 5 (select highlighted)

Three Basic "Families" or Types of Search Tools

- * 1. Search engines defined (The BEST Search Engines to use - TABLE of features):
- * 2. Subject directories defined (The BEST Subject Directories to use- TABLE of features):
- * 3. MetaSearch Engines (The BEST MetaSearch Engines or some of them TABLE of features) :